

SUSTAINABILITY POLICY

OILFIELD SERVICES AND SUPPLIES SAS establishes its commitment to sustainable development without compromising future generations, developing practices that reduce negative impacts and maximize positive impacts in the social, cultural, environmental and economic aspects generated during the provision of services; through ethical, transparent behavior in addition to the analysis of the expectations of the interest groups of OILFIELD SERVICES AND SUPPLIES SAS, such as shareholders, employees, clients, partners, suppliers, local communities and society.

OILFIELD SERVICES AND SUPPLIES SAS establishes guidelines on matters such as respect for human rights, occupational health and safety, environmental protection, equal gender opportunities, efficient use of resources, compliance with legal requirements. OILFIELD SERVICES AND SUPPLIES SAS, sustainability must be integrated into all processes through the following actions:

- Manage the risks and opportunities of activities, in order to prevent damage to people, property and the environment.
- Reduce their greenhouse gas emissions, helping to mitigate the effects of climate change
- Establish objectives to contribute to the goals defined in the Sustainable Development Goals.
 - Transfer the culture of sustainability to the supply chain: clients, partners, products, service providers and other stakeholders.

OILFIELD SERVICES AND SUPPLIES SAS has communication channels, available and accessible to inform, involve and maintain a continuous dialogue with its stakeholders (contacto@oss.com.co).

CARLOS HERNANDO CUMBE TOVAR

Gerente General

Original Firmada